The Redbook
by Jeff Garrett - 10:30 am

Jeff Garrett, founder of Mid-American Rare Coin Galleries, is considered one of the nation's top experts in U.S. coinage - and knowledge lies at the foundation of Jeff's numismatic career. With more than 45 years of experience, he is one of the top experts in numismatics. Mr. Garrett has authored many of today's most popular numismatic books, including Encyclopedia of U.S. Gold Coins 1795–1933: Circulating, Proof, Commemorative, and Pattern Issues; 100 Greatest U.S. Coins; and United States Coinage: A Study By Type. He is also the Senior Editor of Redbook for The Official Redbook: A Guide Book of United States Coins. Jeff plays an important role at the Smithsonian Institution's National Numismatic Department and serves as consultant to the museum on funding, exhibits, conservation and research.

Jeff will be discussing the 2025 Edition of the Guide Book of United States coins. He will also explain how the book is created each year, with behind the scenes looks at the process. Jeff will tell the history of the Redbook from its creation in 1946 to date.

The Man Who Saved Cincinnati
by Peter Bronson - 1:00 pm

Peter Bronson has been a reporter, editor and columnist at several newspapers including the Tucson Citizen and the Cincinnati Enquirer, where he was editorial page editor and columnist. He has won numerous journalism awards for writing and editing, including investigative reporting, public service, column writing and "Best Editorial Page in Ohio" for four years in a row. He is owner and publisher of Chilidog Press LLC. His media work includes radio and TV, as a panelist on "Arizona Illustrated" on KUAT-TV in Tucson, and as co-host and producer of "Hotseat," a Cincinnati public affairs show.

THE MAN WHO SAVED CINCINNATI…Saved victory for US Grant at Fort Donelson. Became the scapegoat for Grant's mistakes at Shiloh. Was sent to rescue Cincinnati from a Confederate attack. Turned the defenseless city into a fortress in three days. Was hailed as the Savior of the Queen City of the West. Saved Washington DC from capture. Was a judge in the trial of the assassins of Abraham Lincoln. Prevented an alliance between the Confederates and Mexico. Ended the bloody Lincoln County Range War in New Mexico Territory. Captured Billy the Kid. Was a self-taught painter, sculptor, architect, inventor and musician. Wrote Ben-Hur: A Tale of the Christ, one of the greatest books in American literature. Learn about: The secret plot to assassinate Abraham Lincoln in Cincinnati. Panic and threats from Morgan's Raiders. How the scapegoat of Shiloh became the Savior of Cincinnati.
